

Infrastructure Investor Australia Forum

22nd October 2024, Park Hyatt Hotel, Melbourne

Monday 21st October (Times in AEST) Melbourne, Australia

1800: Welcome Cocktail Reception

Tuesday 22nd October (Times in AEST) Melbourne

0830 Registration & Networking

0900 PEI Opening Remarks

0910 Keynote Fireside Chat

Nik Kemp, Head of Global Real Assets, Australian Super, interviewed by Daniel Kemp, APAC Editor, Infrastructure Investor

0940 Keynote Panel: The next era of Infrastructure Investing

- Global GP Consolidation – what does this mean for LPs? Will independent managers still have a role to play?
- Will renewables and digital sectors continue to dominate investing opportunities?
- What is the future role of core Australian infrastructure in global portfolios?

Speakers: Ken Wong, Head of Asia Pacific, EQT Partners

Sandra Lee, Head of Private Markets, UniSuper

Hajir Naghdy, Senior Managing Director and Head of Asia and the Middle East, Stonepeak

1030 Break

1100 Panel: Renewables Platforms as an investing strategy

- Australia vs ROW - which global jurisdictions are proving the most attractive?

For more information regarding the event, please email Andrew.w@pei.group

- Investing in renewables platforms as a strategy to mitigate risk.
- Distributed energy vs large scale renewables

Moderator: Daniel Kemp, APAC Editor, Infrastructure Investor

Speakers: Daniel Timms, Managing Director & Head of Asset Management, Igneo Infrastructure Partners

1150 Panel: The future of infrastructure investing is digital

- The intersection of AI & digital: What opportunities does AI unlock in the digital space?
- What's different about digital infrastructure investment in Australia vs. other jurisdictions
- How will digitalisation further drive decarbonisation and help mitigate risks in investing in the energy transition?

Judi Seebus, Contributing Editor, Infrastructure Investor/PERE

1235 Lunch & Networking

1335 Panel: Australian LPs investing strategies – onwards and upwards outbound?

- How are Australian LPs increasing their outbound capabilities?
- How are LPs thinking about direct investing and co-investments vs funds?
- Infrastructure vs other private markets - is it taking over property?

Moderator: Manish Rastogi, Head of Real Assets, Frontier Advisors

Speakers: Mark Hector, Head of Infrastructure, Aware Super

Haydn Board, Associate Infrastructure Investments, CBUS Super

1415 Presentation

Speaker: Ethan Koh, Head of Global Research Operations, PEI

1435 Panel: Impact Investing in the Infrastructure Context

- How can managers demonstrate real impact with their infrastructure investments?
- Tracking and measuring with impact performance
- Nature based solutions as an impact investing opportunity.

For more information regarding the event, please email Andrew.w@pei.group

- How are mandatory sustainability regulations poised to shape the asset class?

Catherine Lloyd, Principal, Head of Infrastructure Asia Pacific, Mercer

1520 Break

1550 Panel: Spotlight on Battery Storage

- Battery storage in Australia – what is its competitive advantage?
- Costs of battery storage, have costs come down sufficiently to encourage large scale investment?
- What are the potential returns, and the role of government incentives in the sector?

Speakers: Andrew Wegman, Managing Director - Finance & Investment, Akaysha Energy

Becky Sung, Aware Super

1630 Panel: Offshore investors take on Australia

- How are international investors viewing the local market compared to other developed jurisdictions?
- Operating assets in Australia, what are the challenges and risks that they face?
- Accessing deals – how competitive is the current market for foreign players to bid for deals, are they at competitive disadvantage?

Moderator: Tom Taylor, Reporter, Infrastructure Investor

Speakers: Jiroo Eoh, Department Head, ABL Life Insurance

Lidia Slaven, Investment Manager, Infrastructure Portfolio, ADIA

1715 Cocktail Reception

For more information regarding the event, please email Andrew.w@pei.group