Responsible Investor Asia provides a platform for investors in public markets to debate, share insights, and learn from those leading the rapidly evolving sustainable finance effort across Asia.

Join more than 300 asset owners, fund managers, banks, and corporates to discover how they are implementing their sustainability, disclosure, and net zero commitments.

This year's event is converging with the launch of the PEI Responsible Investment Forum Asia. Together, they present the inaugural Sustainable Investor Summit for the region, bringing together thought-leaders from both private and public markets.

Agenda highlights

Join keynote presentations, interactive deep-dives, and panel discussions that promise to spark discussion and provide you with the actionable insights you need to tackle pressing sustainability challenges.

Back to reality: taking stock of sustainability efforts in Asian financial markets

- » How are government net zero plans unfolding and what will it mean for investors?
- » Which institutions are driving most progress in terms of real-world impact?
- » What is the role of public-private collaboration?
- » Is the region ready for a 1.5- or 2.0-degree scenario in the coming decade?

Asia's asset owners panel

- » What role does ESG play as a protector of value from the viewpoint of asset owners?
- » Has investing sustainably become more challenging for asset owners over the past two years?
- » What is keeping senior leaders at asset owners up at night in 2024?
- » How are investors prioritising their time and efforts on sustainability – is it really front and centre now?

ISSB, GRI, TNFD: the evolution and interoperability of reporting standards

- » How are investor and corporate reporting norms changing in Asia?
- » To what extent are new reporting frameworks compatible and interoperable from the viewpoint of investors?
- » How are investors adopting the ISSB standard?
- » Is reporting being done for its own sake?

Sustainable Investor Summit Asia 2024

Connecting thought leaders in sustainability across public and private markets

The 3rd RI Asia forum is expanding, converging with the launch of the PEI Responsible Investment Forum Asia. Together, they present the inaugural Sustainable Investor Summit for the region.

Scheduled for October in Singapore, this summit will convene thought leaders from both private and public markets across Asia and beyond. The focus will centre on the ongoing evolution of sustainability in Asian financial markets.

Don't miss this opportunity to engage with industry leaders, gain insights, and contribute to the dialogue shaping the future of responsible investing in Asia.
